

The Holocaust, European Values and Local History

Local Archives in the European Historical and Cultural Mosaic

THE INTERNATIONAL EXPERT SYMPOSIUM

Place: the Archives of Vojvodina, Zarka Vasiljevica 2, Novi Sad, Serbia
Time: 23. September 10:00 - 14:30

Organized by the Archives of Vojvodina and Terraforming

10:00-11:20

Part I: Unboxing The History - Bringing Local History Closer to the People

- Dr László Csosz (the National Archives of Hungary):
Mapping the Genocide of the Roma in Hungary
- Larysa Michalska (Humanity in Action Poland):
Unboxing history for social change
- Tijana Kovčić and Jelena Nikolić (the Historical Archives of Belgrade):
Jewish Digital Collection
- Discussion, moderator Nevena Bajalica

11:20-11:30 coffee break

11:30-12:50

Part II: Archival pedagogy and the IHRA Recommendations on Teaching and Learning about the Holocaust

- Zoltán Tóth (the Holocaust Memorial Center in Budapest):
Protecting the Facts in European Memory Landscapes
- Dr Zuzana Pavlovská (the Jewish Museum in Prague):
Teaching and Learning about the Holocaust in Museums and Archives
- Discussion, moderator Miško Stanišić

12:50-13:00 coffee break

13:00-14:30

Part III: Educational outreach - Local Archives in the European Historical and Cultural Mosaic

- Petar Djurdjev (the Historical Archive of the City of Novi Sad):
Archival Pedagogy and Social Outreach in a work of a Historical Archive
- Miško Stanišić (Terraforming):
An Educational Graphic Novel about the Persecution of the Roma
- (Workshop: Relevance of Local Microhistories in European Context)

LUNCH: 15:00-16:00

Info: www.terraforming.org/local-archives-and-archival-pedagogy